

Anne is the Executive Director of the Greenbrier Valley Community Foundation, joining in 2018 after serving on the Board of Directors for a year. The Community Foundation distributes over a million dollars in grants, scholarships, and fund distributions to organizations, students, and community projects in Greenbrier, Monroe, and Pocahontas counties. She previously served as the Development Director at Carnegie Hall in Lewisburg, responsible for planning and managing special events and fundraisers for the Hall. She has served on various local boards and committees focused on an improved quality of life for the people of the Greenbrier Valley. Anne has a master's degree in marketing communications from West Virginia University and has had the pleasure of utilizing it in several amazing sales/marketing positions, including National Sales Director at SustainU Clothing and Marketing Graduate Assistant at the WVU Small Business Development Center. After work, you'll find Anne outside, enjoying the simple pleasures of life in a mountain town with her son.