

After 48 years in the financial and insurance industry, Warren retired from Principal Financial Group in 2019. He founded MBK Ventures, LLC in 2020 to provide consulting and advisory services to the financial services profession and in July 2023, joined TAG Financial Institutions Group, New York, as a Senior Advisor embracing opportunities within the financial services profession.

Warren is passionate about bringing this facility to White Sulphur Springs and providing a safe and engaging place for our youth, seniors and everyone in between. His early contributions to the Board have include delivery of clearly defined mission, vision and strategy with an ultimate goal of executing a coordinated growth plan and fundraising. Warren lives in White

Sulphur Springs with his wife,
Margaret.